Purpose

These rules establish the procedure for complaints and dispute resolution under NEPRA. The official rules define a complaint broadly to include disputes involving consumers and licensees.

Important complaint workflow

- PowerSense should distinguish between identifying a possible billing issue and filing a formal complaint.
- NEPRA's current complaint system advises consumers to first lodge the complaint with the concerned SDO/XEN before lodging it with NEPRA.
- Supporting documents may be required when submitting a complaint.

Current NEPRA complaint system

Official complaint registration information states that complaints older than one year cannot be processed under the 2015 rules and that consumers are advised to approach the concerned SDO/XEN first. Official system: <https://nepra.org.pk/CAD-Database/CMS-CAD/cregister.php>

How PowerSense should use this source

- Generate a complaint draft only from the facts visible in the user's bill and information supplied by the user.
- Do not claim that a bill is fraudulent or illegal merely because a value looks unusual.
- For uncertain issues, use wording such as 'requires verification' and point the user toward the appropriate complaint process.
